

27 MAY 2022

STATEMENT

New members for Australian Logistics Council Board

The Australian Logistics Council (ALC) held its annual general meeting on Tuesday, 24 May in Sydney ahead of the 2022 Annual Forum.

Six new appointments were made to the ALC Board from our corporate members – Amazon, Australia Post, DP World, HERE Technologies, NTi and Toll Global Express.

ALC's Board has senior representatives from across the supply chain and we continue to focus our efforts on delivering enhanced end-to-end supply chain safety, productivity, efficiency and sustainability for our members and the broader sector.

The full ALC Board:

- Philip Davies, ALC Chair and Independent Director
- Andrew Adam, Chief Executive Officer, DP World Australia
- Eliza Anning, Chief Transformation Officer, LINX Cargo Care Group
- Daniel Antonello, General Manager Australia and New Zealand, HERE Technologies
- Marika Calfas, Chief Executive Officer, NSW Ports
- Saul Cannon, Chief Executive Officer, Port of Melbourne
- Ingilby Dickson, Independent Director
- Paul Digney, Managing Director, Qube
- James Dixon, Divisional General Manager South, Australia Post
- Michael Edmonds, Executive General Manager, NTi
- Craig Fuller, Director of Operations, Amazon Australia
- Zed Ivankovic, Chief Corporate Affairs Officer, Toll Group
- Mark Mazurek, CEO Linfox Logistics Australia / New Zealand
- Ben Newton, General Manager Strategy, Development & Partnership, Primary Connect
- Simon Ormsby, Group Executive, Interstate Network, Australian Rail Track Corporation
- Phillip Parsons, General Manager Logistics, Coca-Cola Europacific Partners
- Mario Philippou, Chief Transformation Officer, Toll Global Express
- Neil Stephens, Chief Executive Officer, Port of Brisbane.

Ends.